

Employment

As employment chair, the duties include being a liaison for employers and potential applicants.

It is a position that requires confidentiality and trust. There is much networking associated with the referral process.

Our association has been extremely successful in the placement of our membership as well as others in the insurance industry. Communication throughout the various employer groups is essential. This chair is very rewarding and interesting and gives you the opportunity to meet many new people and work with associations outside of IWOF through this service oriented position.
